

Higher Heights

August 14th, 2023

Isaiah 55: 8-9

“For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways,” declares the Lord. “As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

There are heights that the people on our team need to go to that will never get there unless someone is leading them there.

Three things to lead like a Sherpa, to help take people higher.

1. You have to _____ in your team.

It’s wonderful when the people believe in the leader, but it’s even more wonderful when the leader believes in the people. - John Maxwell

Part of believing in your team is saying what you _____.

There are several people on our teams are belief _____.

Matthew 25:35-40

Jesus _____ people so much that when you add value to people he takes it _____.

2. Your team has to _____ you.

One of the best ways to build trust is _____.

When your team sees you _____ it builds trust.

3. You have to be willing to go to _____ yourself. Your team will not go, where you have not been.

Our daily _____ on God’s is crucial.

Romans 8:14-15 For those who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God. The Spirit you received does not make you slaves so that you live in fear again; rather, the Spirit you received brought about your adoption to sonship. And by him, we cry, “Abba, Father.”

Going higher is not meant to be a burden we carry, it’s meant to be _____.

We get to believe in people.

We get to value them.

We get to lead them up the mountain.

What a privilege.

Table Questions:

- 1.) Who is one person that believed in you, or added value to you that made a difference in who you are today?
- 2.) Who on your team has a low belief quotient? How can you share your belief in them THIS week?
- 3.) What does your “daily training” or daily time with God look like? When is the last time you have asked the people on your team the same thing?
- 4.) What is something that is holding you back from taking the next step, going to the next level in your relationship with God, and your leadership.
